Do not be afraid... a SAVIOR has been born for YOU

LUKE 2:10-11

We have much to complain about...the pandemic, racial injustice, the economy, the environment, the politics, and the list goes on. These are very important matters and these should be discussed and pondered and acted upon.

But if we focus only on the problems, we end up ignoring the ever-present hope. The HOPE is the key to everything.

The Holy Family had much to complain about. They were forced to travel far from home in Nazareth, all the way to Bethlehem to participate in a census ordered by the occupying forces...while Mary was nine months pregnant.

There was no housing available, making them homeless. Then the baby came, with no crib, only a feeding trough/manger used by the livestock who lived in that smelly cave in which this Homeless Family was sheltering.

That is the situation into which Eternal HOPE was born. Love's Pure Light was born that Holy Night. Mary and Joseph could have been filled with discouragement except for the sheer joy they saw in the Christ Child, and their fidelity to God's plan.

This is our path: to remain faithful to Christ who is fully present in our lives and our world.

This year, let Love's Pure Light shine in you and through you. Call to Him, put your hope in Him... JESUS, my Savior!

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. John Kerns

Pastor

The Nativity of the Lord

LUKE 2:1-14

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria. So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town. And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear. The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

Profession of Faith

The Nicene Creed

Please stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(Genuflect on Christmas.) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

For Catholics, the Holy Eucharist is our highest form of worship; a public statement in our belief, that what was previously bread and wine has now become, through this act of worship, the true existence of the body and blood of Jesus Christ. This is why it is distributed only to Catholics who believe the nature of this Sacrament.

Non-Catholics are invited to come forward for a blessing during Communion. Please place your right arm across your heart to indicate to the Eucharistic Minister your desire for a blessing. Or, if you prefer, you may be seated at this time.

The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.

But little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes;

Close by me for ever, and love me, I pray;
