EMERGING FROM THE TOMB

No one believed it possible. Sure, he said, he would rise from the dead. But, really, did anyone take him seriously, besides, perhaps his mother? He had been arrested, humiliated, cruelly tortured and killed. The Roman army can demonstrate its power with ruthless efficiency. All hope was dashed.

But they underestimated the power of God. And now these 2000 years later we say, without a hint of doubt, that it is ludicrous to think that the Source of Life could have his life taken from him. Still, in moments of honesty we doubt... such as now.

Will we ever emerge from this pandemic? Will we go back to normal? When can we hug again? Will I ever shake a stranger's hand? What will work be like? Will we ever again receive communion from the chalice?

There is no reason to doubt. I'm not saying that we will go back to the exact same world we had before. Rather, the way God works, the best miracles happen through hardship. Hopefully we will be stronger, more resilient, more prayerful, more patient, more appreciative. Families spent more time together, covid projects and forced adaptations developed new life-skills in us. Remember trying to figure out the mute button or "Share Screen" options on Zoom for the first time?

We can choose how we emerge from the pandemic. God's grace will show us how. As we made Lenten resolutions 40 days ago to die to sin, let us make Easter resolutions for the future to live for Christ.

Jesus is risen! Let us emerge with him from the tomb.

Your brother in Christ,

-Fr. John Kerns

Victimae Paschali Laudes
(Christians, to the Paschal Victim)

Chant

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises!
A Lamb the sheep redeems;
Christ, who only is sinless, reconciles sinners to the Father.
Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:
The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.
Speak, Mary, declaring what you saw, wayfaring.
“The tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesus’ resurrection;
Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting.
Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you.”
Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses

and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Presider: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil,
graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin
and safe from all distress,

yours now and for ever.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

For Catholics, the Holy Eucharist is our highest form of worship; a public statement in our belief, that what was previously bread and wine has now become, through this act of worship, the true existence of the body and blood of Jesus Christ. This is why it is distributed only to Catholics who believe the nature of this Sacrament.

Non-Catholics are invited to come forward for a blessing during Communion. Please place your right arm across your heart to indicate to the Eucharistic Minister your desire for a blessing. Or, if you prefer, you may be seated at this time.
