Jesus the Healer

"When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him."

Mark 1:32-34

In this week's Gospel, we are introduced to Jesus' other primary mission—to heal and cure diseases of body and mind. Jesus the Healer draws many in the crowd and they follow him. In that moment they listen to his teaching with authority, as we heard in last week's Gospel passage.

When we come to the Lord for refuge in our hour of need, our hearts and minds are often more open to hearing his Word and following his will for our lives. We need the Lord as both our Teacher and Healer.

Throughout the Gospel accounts we hear many stories of Jesus curing the illnesses of those who come to him, or are brought to him, asking for healing. In this scene he restores the health of Simon Peter's mother-in-law which, quite literally, opens the door for the many ill or possessed by demons in Capernaum to seek Jesus' healing. Afterward, Jesus is exhausted. What does he do? He goes off to pray!

The Power of Prayer

Jesus going off to pray in the early morning, shows that the source—the well-spring of all his activity—was union with the God whom he called his Father. We cannot say what Jesus' prayer was, but the confident communication between Father and Son must have been the source of his strength and compassion. Jesus seeks union with his Father in prayer reminding all of us that prayer connects us with the Father and Son, and through Christ with the community of faith.

Jesus does respond when we pray for the needs of our loved ones, friends, and community. He wants to bring healing and wholeness. We participate in that answer to prayer through our own actions of love and support: bringing a meal to a friend who is sick; calling to check-in on a loved one who lives alone or is currently isolated; visiting someone in the hospital or care facility. Our presence participates in the power of prayer.

Reaching out to others in word and deed is the responsibility of all in the Christian community. Of course, intercessory prayer is part of every Mass we celebrate but also needs to be part of our personal prayer every day. The union of our individual hearts and voices with one another in prayer will be the source of our strength and compassion. May we know the height and depth, length, and breadth of God's love for us, and may we be sustained for the journey as disciples.

Holy Communion for the Home Bound

Jesus, in the Most Holy Eucharist, is our compassionate Healer. We come to the Lord in our need. For the benefit of the Home Bound who are unable to participate in the Mass in person, if you would like to receive Holy Communion on a regular basis, a spouse or any Catholic adult family member may be trained to bring you the Eucharist. If you are interested, please contact our Parochial Vicar, Fr. Charles Zach, at frcharlesz@ollparish.com or call the parish office at 503-636-7687.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

The Power of Prayer

In today's Gospel reading, we hear that Jesus' heals Simon's mother and she immediately rises and begins caring for Jesus! Wow, imagine you are healed from having a cold or flu and the first thing you do is care for another person. Well, that's exactly what Simon's mother did! Yet, the beauty of this Gospel reading continues as we notice the importance of prayer in Jesus' daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning and went to a quiet place to pray. We believe that in his prayers Jesus found guidance and direction from God. We also bring our decision-making to God in prayer, asking for his guidance and direction in our lives. So, we must follow Jesus' example and say a prayer before we begin our day.

NEWS FROM OLL SCHOOL

Eighth Grade Leadership Class

This year, our 8th-grade students are participating in a leadership class that allows them to develop their public speaking, decision-making, goal-setting, and peer relationship skills, as well as implement school activities. Highlighted activities for the students include leading monthly prayer services, participating in weekly school masses, serving with Mercy Teams, and mentoring younger students.

Leading monthly prayer services develop their public speaking skills that foster spiritual growth and community connection. In the weekly school liturgies, students actively contribute by reading and altar serving. Engaging with Mercy Teams projects instills a sense of responsibility and empathy in our community.

As student leaders in our school community, these students demonstrate our school mission through their actions: 'Act Justly, Love Tenderly, Walk humbly with your God' (Micah 6:8).
