BUILDING OUR FUTURE A Sacred Presence

Rendering of proposed Adoration Chapel

Our Lady of the Lake is entering an exciting and bold chapter in our ministries and history. We are embarking on a major remodel and renovation project that will breathe new life into our facilities and enhance our ability to serve our community of faith. These physical improvements are not mere aesthetic changes, but rather tangible embodiments of our parish's deepening commitment to being a true "Sacred Presence" in our community. By enhancing our facilities, we are making room for our ministries to flourish and expand their reach. Whether it's hosting community support groups, providing religious education for our youth, or serving meals to the hungry, our renewed spaces will empower us to more effectively live out God's call to love and serve our neighbors. The last 4 weeks we have highlighted some of the major aspects of the remodel.

This weekend we are kicking off a $10 million capital campaign that will fund these crucial improvements throughout our parish campus. Our campaign chairpersons will be speaking at each of the Masses to share their passion for the project. Join us after each Mass to learn more about the project, view floor plans and talk with the Campaign Cabinet members and architects. We are so excited to share the plans with you and take the next step in the journey.

MERCY TEAMS

Be the Bread of Life for the vulnerable by helping respect, feed, clothe and serve our fellow human beings struggling with some of life's worst challenges, while lacking the support of family, friends or resources to make the required change. Mercy Teams has delivered over 350,000 small acts of mercy in the form of sack lunches, hot breakfasts and family meals since the start of Covid.

Mercy Teams serves our vulnerable and unsheltered guests in three primary ways:

1. Street Ministry to the Unsheltered under the Bridge, where we prepare a hot breakfast, hygiene items, sort clothing and serve our vulnerable guests with food, clothing, engagement and love.
2. Sack Lunch Meals of Mercy where we distribute 1,200 sack lunch meals every week. Sack Lunches are collected twice every month, between 9 and 11:30 outside the parish school.
3. Family Meals delivered to food insecure families – Made up by Costco and distributed prior to Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. Each distribution serves around 100 families.

Our greatest need is sack lunches. We serve twelve missions, churches and outreach organizations assisting the unsheltered community each week. Please consider donating a few sack lunches and dropping them off during our upcoming sack lunch collections: October 20, November 3 & 17, and December 8 & 22.

Come see the face of Jesus Christ under the bridge or while helping deliver sack lunches to our mission partners.

Come serve our brothers and sisters in Christ.

4th Saturday Street Ministry Under the Bridge: Oct. 26, Nov. 23, Dec 28.

See Mercy Teams Webpage to volunteer or to pledge sack lunches.
